

Cause for Concern Form

in affiliation with

At Lime House Yoga we take safeguarding extremely seriously. As a member of Lime House Yoga you should adhere to our safeguarding policy. If you have a cause for concern you should ring the DSO (see below for details).

Date of discussion with DSO		Ref:
Date of incident
Name of referrer
Phone number
Role: employee, volunteer etc
Name of individual concerned
Contact details
Age		Gender M / F / other
Incident: provide as much detail as possible, dates/times, location and use the persons words where possible. What was seen, said or heard
Record of involvement: who was involved and in what way?
Identify of alleged abuser (if known)
Were parents/carers/family informed? If yes give details of when
Consent to report	Y / N
For adult referrals only: do you know what the adult would like to happen now? If yes please describe

Decision: Provide rationale (e.g. no further action needed; immediate referral to MARU or Adult Safeguarding Triage etc)
Referral Y / N to whom & by whom
Action: what & by whom	What	By who
Follow up required	Y / N
	If yes by whom?
Lessons learnt from the incident

Confidentiality

All Lime House Yoga workers and volunteers understand the need for confidentiality. Matters on this form should be kept confidential. These issues should only be discussed with the Relevant Safeguarding Authorities and the DSOs.

Lime House Yoga's Designated Safeguarding Officers are:

United Kingdom

Emma Rowse - 01872 572620 (mobile telephone number 07763 625138)
emma@limehouseyoga.com

Please ring when you have completed this form. When you have made the call please email the form marked 'Private and Confidential' to the DSO.

We gratefully acknowledge the work of Volunteer Cornwall in the writing of this.